Dear Ms. Adams,

I have had the pleasure of supervising Kathy Jones during the past two years while she has served as a Patient Care Technician in the Emergency Department at the University of Pulmonary Hospital. Kathy has shown the ability to establish an excellent rapport with many different constituents including nurses, medical and nursing students, physicians and staff. Kathy is genuinely interested in helping others and provides excellent patient care in a consistently positive and skillful manner. Kathy is self-assured and calmly handles the stress associated with a highly acute, Level I Trauma Center. Her ability to think quickly on her feet, assist with procedures and patient care when needed, and the ability to get the job done is exceptional for a nursing student.

Kathy is also responsible and volunteers to jump in and help out with any task from the mundane to the challenging. She blends a well organized, task oriented style with the aforementioned sensitivity to the needs of our patients and their families. I have rarely met a student employee over the past ten years upon whom I can rely as much as Kathy.

As you can tell, I think very highly of this young woman and recommend Kathy without reservations for employment or any other endeavors she chooses to pursue. Please contact me if you have any further questions about this outstanding young woman.

Sincerely,

Joe Nurse, DNP, MSN, RN

College Recommendation Letter from Teacher

To Whom It May Concern,

Sub: College recommendation letter for Jack Smith

My student, Jack Smith, is a brilliant student and I am recommending him for admission at your college. I hope that you will consider my recommendation and give him a chance to study at such a reputed college.

I had taught Mr. Jack Smith for 3 years at school level and found him to be very intelligent, hard-working and creative. He is very attentive and has high concentration levels. He is always willing and eager towards learning new things.

Jack is a highly ambitious person with great intellectual acumen. He is very serious with his studies and takes up all the tasks with dedication. He has always been consistent in his performance. If you go through his scores and grades, you would get to know that he consistently performed well in all his subjects. In addition to academic excellence, Jack has also shown keen interest in sports and extra co-curricular.

Jack would prove to be a great student for your college.

Yours Sincerely,

Robert Hall

Recommendation letter template for undergraduate students.

This year, he served as publisher of this year's school year, demonstrating his ability to delegate, work to his assistant editors and organize an efficient workflow. Melinda is not only a born leader and a demanding worker, she is a gentle and friendly Single fixed worker who strives to make a positive impact on the world around her. As a first-hand testimony to his quick thinking, judgment and ethics in the workplace, it was hardly surprising to hear that he again made the list of the dean of last spring. This sample has a school counselor who draws on their long relationship with the student to describe their personal impression of the student character, highlights the student's work ethic and exemplary performance in multiple fields. What to include this letter should provide key details on the relationship between recommend and applicant and highlight the positive attributes of the candidate. Even if the Admission Committee does not carefully read the recommendation letters, it's likely to notice that they have been included in the application and that the applicant in the body of person who can drum on recommendations is a positive by all. Kind regards, Janice Travis Biology Teacher Lart Away School The above sample has a brief summary of the positive attributes of the student, as well as two contact methods contained in the body of the paragraph. As a public speaker it's able to hold the attention of an entire assembly, and when they speak one-to-one shows ability empathetic listening, so as a powerful intellect. Therefore, if you reduce to one application with a generic reference compared to another with a genuine reference, the second application will probably receive the nod. Sample 1 Dear Admissions Committee, I am pleased to write this letter of ni ni nonnaS nayR etnemarecnIS osoligivarem oudividni e etnettempor otlom etneduts nu dnalayL neraK id otnoc rep Ted was president of the student council, captain of the basketball team and student of honor. Why use a college letter of recommendation? In her third year, she started a sustainability program with her colleagues, which now conducts an annual audit of school waste and gives presentations on waste reduction and practices. Although this is her first job, she has demonstrated professional instincts and a bulletproof work ethic from day one. Conclusion The concluding paragraph can be 2-4 sentences long and its purpose is twofold: to summarize the author's personal recommendation and to provide a contact method for further questions. The student should be described in such a way as to highlight both his/her academic abilities and his/her personal qualities. He is an organized, intelligent and capable young man who would be a great addition to your school. Who to select? But even if recommendations are not a strict necessity, they can help build the cause for admission. A short anecdote to illustrate the character: Last Sunday, our early shift bartender called out sick. Cassandra cares about those around her and is always ready to give a hand or a word of encouragement. He is a charming young man who is able to see the good in everyone. I saw him develop into a well-rounded and mature young man, who will achieve many great things in his life. Staying after school for extra help in math and science, Jordan managed to improve his academic performance to such an extent that he was included in the School's Honorary Role for two consecutive years. I am also pleased to say that I was able to award Laura with the AAPT Outstanding Student Certificate for her exemplary performance during her two years as a student in my physics classes. In a nutshell, try to rather than saying why the candidate will be a success in higher education. An advantage that the colleges Universities understand that, on top of a full curriculum, having other activities takes away school work. Our school was very fortunate to have her as a student and I'm sure your faculty would be the same if she were accepted. While I, as the store manager, would normally cover such a long-awaited absence, I was otherwise busy with a family medical matter. I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to help Ted through these difficult times. During this period, he has consistently proven to be a consistent, professional and enjoyable employee. Jordan is known throughout the school for his athletic achievements on the track and field, as well as for being an outstanding performer in the theater program. She deserves all the good things she will inevitably come up with in her post-secondary years. Although friends or family might be able to sing the applicant's praises, the best letters are usually written by teachers or employers. In the first year of high school Ted's As A, he came to me in need of some guidance. Being specific, the author clearly demonstrates why the student is a suitable candidate for a particular college or university. I am very pleased that Ted contacted me to write this letter, because I am so impressed with his results and enormous potential. Not only is she one of my best physics students, but she was also responsible for organizing student activities and speaking at the assemblies as president of the Student Council. She started volunteering at North View Elementary School, talking to children and even teaching more subjects. Please contact me if you would like to discuss further the acceptance of Ted in your college. I'm also lucky enough to play music with Karen when we can both save up time and my favorite part about it is the change in the teacher-student dynamic where I get to reinterpret the role of the student. You become adept at juggling multiple workloads. How to write (format) A recommendation letter should fill an entire page 400, 500 words) and contain an introduction, two (2) bodily paragraphs, and a conclusion. Best regards, Erik Perkins Mathematics teacher Georgiana Bruce Kirby Prep School Example 2 Dear Committee of admissions, I have no hesitation to write to you about the acceptance of Ted in your prestigious institution. He has a winning attitude full of determination and perseverance that he has no equal. I would be happy to answer all the questions you have about Karen or the Kirby Prep School. Moreover, the individual chosen by the student should be someone with whom he had a relationship outside of school hours, as part of a volunteer program, a sports team or an academic club. Many colleges require recommendation letters from candidates. Try to connect the various interests and attitudes of the student to paint a coherent and memorable portrait. It is a talented and laborious individual who finds joy in helping others. Example # 2 As a captain of the female basketball team, Melinda participated in two state championships and brought our school to victory in a district tournament. The intense interest of Clayton in understanding how things work and the natural aptitude for sciences lead me to believe that he will be a precious resource for your classes. Sincerely, Mr. John Lewis Physics Teacher West Island High School In this final paragraph, the summary is specifically oriented towards the university program that the student is applying for. This result was obtained by giving your attention undivided in class and doing the extra work out of the classroom. Paragraph # 1 The first paragraph body of the letter should provide a positive description of the student's character, as well as list the results and prizes that may have obtained. I contacted Jim, and he offered himself with enthusiasm to do the shift, even if it was a 16-hour day for him. Example #2 When I was first To Jordan, I was immediately impressed by his maturity and from his trust. A always able to manage his time superbly and willing to help other students who struggle with their work. If it were appropriate for teachers to collect favorites, Karen would surely be one of my best choices. It should include: an explanation of how the A recommendation came to know the positive salients of the applicant owned by the applicant relevant to the success of the college anecdotes illustrating the character and competence of the applicant, although it is easy to write a positive laundry list, A easy to write A better to tell a story. I'm an adviser at Crescent Valley High School and have had the pleasure of working with Ted throughout his high school career. If the letter A was written correctly, you will provide A complete picture of the candidate that goes beyond their grades and personal resume. Even again, he wanted to make a bigger difference. I have no doubt that Jim will be a successful member of the 2022 class and will offer my full approval of him. him.
